Peaceful Relationships Retreat
~ Creating Inner Peace During Stressful Times ~

Based on the work of Marian Head, this retreat will guide you through discovering the "Revolutionary Agreements" and integrating them in very practical ways into your life.

Organized within three unifying principles - Truth (to be who I am); Acceptance (to accept others for who they are); and Gratitude (to appreciate the gift of this moment) – these Agreements can bring inner peace into our lives and even radiate out to contribute to outer peace in the world. Moreover, the Agreements have been found to be especially helpful in these unprecedented and stressful times.

These 12 simple but profound Agreements are an instruction manual for your life journey – a direct route to the inner peace that best supports you and your relationships, whether at home, in your community, and in the world. Please join us, as we experience the beauty of the St. John's Retreat Center campus and the joy of growing with fellow conscious participants.
